

Machine management: When is a virtual machine deployment marked as "Failed"?

Sometimes a virtual machine deployment request could fail because of space constraints. When this happens the status of the virtual machine is marked as "Failed" in the list of deployed sessions. This entry can be safely deleted by clicking on the delete icon against the entry. If the error was a transient one, retrying the operation should get you going again.

Unique solution ID: #1007

Author: Coriolis Technologies

Last update: 2012-02-23 11:25