

Glossary: Deploy

To deploy is to prepare a Server with the necessary data to instantiate a Machine. The process ensures that the data files related to the Machine, maintained at the repository will be made available to the Server where the instance will execute. It is possible to deploy the same Machine image multiple times, resulting in multiple instances of the same Machine running. In particular, a Machine needs to be deployed before it can be run (or started).

Unique solution ID: #1050

Author: Coriolis Technologies

Last update: 2012-02-27 18:52